NEWS FROM THE APO

This will be my last newsletter contribution so I would first like to wish you all the best for the upcoming exams and then whatever 2013 brings. I would especially like to thank you all for the wonderful memories over the past few years. My official last day is Dec 13th so I will still be around during exams and the subsequent assessment boards, graduation checks, O-Week planning and application processing so you can still expect emails from me!

For students in 1st year animal sc and veterinary science, remember that there are introductory lectures and information sessions for the 2nd year courses on the Friday of O-Week here at Roseworthy. We highly recommend you be here. For students moving into the DVM, there are also Orientation activities in O-Week, most likely the Thu & Fri.

The final timetable for 2013 will be released in early December so you can start working out your commitments. Summer Semester subject enrolments will also open in early December. If you do enrol in these courses, make sure you note the relevant withdrawal dates as they are very early (sometimes even before the course actually starts).

Enrolments for 2013 will open as below:

Commencing

Bachelor of Science (Animal Science) – 04/02/2013 @ 9:00am

Bachelor of Science (Vet Bioscience) – 04/02/2013 @ 9:00am

Doctor of Veterinary Medicine – 07/02/2013 @ 2:00pm

Continuing

Bachelor of Science (Animal Science) – 10/01/2013 @2:00pm

Bachelor of Science (Vet Bioscience) – 10/01/2013 @ 2:00pm

Doctor of Veterinary Medicine – 11/01/2013 @ 9:00am

All the best

If you have an AEA (Alternative Exam Arrangements) for this semester's exams, you will have now received an email from Rebecca Dunbar. Please check your student email!

Make sure you head into the AUU Office at Roseworthy to see our lovely new Administrator, Tracey Granger!

The office is open for your convenience from Monday to Friday 10.00am – 2.00pm.

Tracey is able to help with the printing and binding service the AUU offer (especially useful for those end of year assignments), and much, much more!

Just a reminder the AUU also offer student care services to those students requiring any advocacy or support in a broad range of areas, from legal and tax help to loans and grants. Drop and see Tracey for more information!

Hey All,

Next year the Bovine Appreciation Group - "Moo Crew" is coming back with vengeance!

However it is important for us to know how many people are interested in being a part of the group.

Over the summer a group of students will be working to get the club up and running. We would like to extend an invitation to anyone else who is interested in being a part of the planning and initial committee to email sophie.mills@student.adelaide.edu.au.

We encourage any Animal science, Ag science and Vet science students to express their interest in being involved by emailing sophie.mills@student.adelaide.edu.au. We have a Facebook group and all people who register their interest will be added to the group so they are kept up to date with group's progress over summer.

We will be holding an AGM at the start of next year to decide on a formal committee and to give an outline of proposed events.

Remember that if you are interested in any clubs they all need help so please get involved.

Thanks

Moo Crew Committee

'Equine vet students get down and dirty'

Kirsty Cordon

Veterinary students of the University of Adelaide Equine Special Interest Group organised their first 'Hoof Care Workshop' held at Roseworthy campus on Sunday 21st Oct. Over 20 veterinary and animal science students attended the day, presented by Ben Pollock Farrier Services from Echunga, along with board certified equine specialist Dr Darien Feary, the newest addition to the University of Adelaide's vet school teaching staff. Ben performed an anatomy and biomechanical wet-lab, uncovering the layers of the equine hoof in a very interactive, comprehensive and entertaining session. This was followed by a clinical case of laminitis that was correctively shod by Ben's farrier team. It was immediately obvious the horse showed an increase in comfort.

Discussions then centred on treatments and management of laminitis (inflammation in the hoof), a common equine disease. Students were then able to utilise the theory they had acquired earlier in the day, and learnt the true meaning of 'Where the rubber meets the road' by dressing and trimming the hooves of the teaching horses on campus. After much sweating and muscle fatigue, the participants came away with appreciable respect for the farrier profession! There were also discussions about the importance of forming a strong farrier-veterinarian working relationship as a critical component to the long-term welfare of horses within the community. The day gave students an opportunity to learn more about hoof care and gained skills in horsemanship and fundamental podiatry principles that will be commonly utilised in the diagnosis of equine lameness when out in veterinary practice.

Major sponsors of the day included Ben Pollock Farrier Services, Mustad Australia farrier supplies, David Farmilo, farrier from Oakbank, Trevor Simmons, Kath Brice, Anthony Wilkes, Dr Darien Feary & Dr Belinda Noble, University of Adelaide Equine Veterinary Services. Without these generous sponsors donating their time, prizes and expertise, the day would not have been possible. The University of Adelaide Equine Special Interest group is planning to run another equine podiatry-based workshop in 2013.

e-Recycling 2012

The Office of Sustainability are holding an e-recycling event to collect a range of electrical equipment that will then be properly disposed of by E-Cycle Recovery.

What can be recycled?

Unwanted computer monitors, keyboards, TVs, microwaves, CDs, printers, servers, phones, radios, overhead projectors, fans

- the list goes on. The general rule is, if it has a cord or a battery it can be e-recycled!

ONE DAY ONLY
November 23 2012
between 8:30am and 5pm.

Collection Point on the Roseworthy Campus.

How?

Step 1: Identify electrical items you no longer want and cannot reuse.

Step 2: Remove the 'test tag' and asset number and provide these details to your school manager.

Step 3 (Optional): Erase everything on your computer's hard drive. E-Cycle Recovery will physically destroy any memory device; however if it is the school's preference to erase any memory on the electronic device it is possible to do so by contacting the ITS helpdesk.

Step 4: Bring these items to your closest e-recycling collection point.

Step 5: Enjoy the environmental buzz of knowing your electrical items will be responsibly and ethically recycled and WILL NOT end up in landfill!!

Reminder about locker keys...

For those of you that have a key for one of the lockers in the change room areas of the Vet Building....

If you are leaving Uni at the end of this year, you will need to return your key to Rebecca in the front office of the Main Building at Roseworthy before the end of exams. If you do not, you will receive a bill for $20 for payment for the key. Non-payment will result in a NSI on your record and will prevent you from being able to graduate until the bill is paid.

For those of you returning next year, you can keep your key (unless you want a new locker – then, see Rebecca in the front office).

Semester 2 2012 Exam Materials

Materials Allowed

Only bring to an examination those items which you need to undertake the examination.

Students bringing bags into the exam venue may be subject to inspection as you enter the venue. Place all the materials you will need on your desk, close your bag and store it under your seat. If you have a mobile phone on your person you must turn it off and store it in your closed bag under your seat.

You MUST BRING to each examination:

- your current Student ID or other photo identification; and
- reasonable supplies of all required writing materials, erasers, etc.

Materials permitted:

- a small purse or wallet, including keys, money, ID & credit cards
- one clear bottle of clear water, up to 1 litre in size (water is available at the venue)
- a closed bag stored under your seat
- any materials specified by the examiner, as set out in the rubric of the examination paper any materials permitted specifically for you under the Reasonable Adjustments to Teaching and Assessment for Students with a Disability Policy

Materials NOT permitted:

You must not bring into the examination venue any material which enables, or has the potential to enable, you or others to cheat or to gain an unfair academic advantage. Examples of materials which are not permitted include, but are not limited to:

- writing or other paper
- dictionaries, textbooks, notes or other reference material not specified on rubric of exam paper
- electronic devices including: diaries, dictionaries, organisers, laptop or palmtop computers unless specified by the examiner (and only self-powered that operate quietly would be acceptable)
- any drinks other than clear water in a clear container

Materials NOT to be removed:

You must not remove from the venue any materials issued for use in the examination, or any copies of such materials. All such materials remain the property of the University, whether the materials were actually used or not. These includes scripts, blank answer books, question papers and drawing or scribble paper.

The majority of exams held on the Roseworthy Campus will be in Callaghan 18 a&b and in the Information Centre.

Check your student email for any venue changes!

Good luck for you exams!
