No. 10 - COMMUNAL WORKS.

1. Communal Works are works which it is a native's duty to perform every year for the health, comfort and direct benefit of himself and the native community of any island on which he may be resident during the season of communal works.

2. These are the only proper objects of Communal Works: the island hospitals, the Native Government stations, the official residences of the village Kaubure, village maneabas, village latrines, and cemeteries.

3. Communal works shall be performed by all able-bodied natives between the ages of 16 and 50, who have not been specially exempted from such work.

4. The following natives of working age shall be exempt from the performance of communal works: Government officials and their wives; high chiefs, their wives and children; missionaries and school teachers and their wives; two domestic helpers for each European member of a mission; one domestic helper for each Native Magistrate, Chief Kaubure, Chief of Police, and Scribe, and for each mission teacher in charge of any village school; one pupil teacher for each village school containing not more than 50 scholars, and pro rata for village schools containing more than that number; natives who have retired after 20 years service with the Government or as a pastor or teacher; scholars and their wives resident within central boarding schools specified in writing by the Government; natives employed under registered contracts for periods exceeding one month, according to sections 13 - 15 of King's Regulation No. 1 of 1915; women during the three months preceding and fifteen months succeeding childbirth; parents with four or more children under the living with them; age of 16 years; natives in possession of a medical certificate of ill-health issued by an European Government Medical Officer.

Fine for

5. (a) Individual natives who desire to contract out of communal work for the entire season may do so on payment to the Native Scribe of a fee to be decided upon by the Administrative Officer during the month of January in each year,

(b) Proof that a native has contracted out shall be by production of a receipt to that effect signed by the Native Scribe.

6. No native shall be required to perform communal work for more than 52 days in any period of twelve months.

7. The season for communal work shall begin in the first week of April each year.

8. During March in each year the Native Government shall give the people a list of all communal works to be completed in the next season of work, and the fee for exemption from communal work fixed by the Administrative Officer under section 5 (a) of this Regulation. No works shall be added to the list after the beginning of the season of work, except such as may be rendered urgently necessary by fires or unforeseen contingencies due to natural causes.

9. The manner of performing Communal Work in any village shall be decided by the majority vote of the people in that village. If the villagers elect to do time-work, then each man shall be given his separate share of work and shall work for two days each week until he has finished his share, or until he has completed 52 days of work, whichever is the shorter period. If piece work is preferred, then the villagers may decide by majority vote how many days each week they will work, and organize themselves into one or more gangs who all together shall perform the work in hand.

10. No native shall be called to work for more than two days in any one week outside his village, except when the workers of his village elect by a majority vote to do so in order to expedite the completion of their work.

11. Any native who fails to perform his fair share of communal work, or who absents himself from communal work without lawful excuse may be fined from £1/- to £10/- by the Native Court.

Not exceeding 10s.

12. Subject to the approval of the Resident Commissioner the natives of any island may elect, by a two-thirds majority vote, to pay an additional copra levy in lieu of the communal works hitherto performed.
