

State Tribute To Sir Josiah Symon

LEAVING ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL after the service held there prior to the State funeral of Sir Josiah Symon yesterday. In the group are (from right)—Sir Walter Young, the Chief Justice (Sir George Murray), Commander O. J. Symon (son), carrying the urn containing the ashes, the Vice-Chancellor of the University (Sir William Mitchell), followed by the chief mourners.

Adv. 21/6/34

AFFIXING THE CREST of the University of Adelaide to the new gates on Frome Road, which will form the main entrance to the University. The gates, which are nearing completion, are the gift of Sir William Mitchell, and are an ornate addition to the iron railings recently erected.

Advertiser 7-7-34

University Gates

News 6-7-34
Plant Pathologist

MR. D. ADAM, who has arrived from Melbourne to take up his appointment as plant pathologist at the Waite Agricultural Research Institute. He will begin his duties on Monday. Mr. Adam, who is a son of Prof. Adam, of Melbourne, was formerly plant pathologist to the Victorian Department of Agriculture.

THE MITCHELL GATES, a handsome new entrance to the University on Frome road, which will be officially opened soon. They are named after the Vice-Chancellor of the University (Sir William Mitchell).