

Mail

4th March 1933

Pulteney Street Extension

AN AERIAL VIEW of Adelaide, showing how the new great hall of the University would prevent an extension of Pulteney street to Frome road. As King William street is the only direct artery from the city for north-bound traffic it is evident that another outlet will have to be constructed in the future.

Photo by D. Dyeran Smith.