News 9.8.35 News 98.35

Institute

"THE main hope for unity among the people of British origin is the maintenance, through education, of a common type of client, and the lastitute of the common of the United States of the Clarke, advisor to the common of the United States of Education of Educati

The object of Prof. Clarke's visit is o gain an intimate knowledge of Australian educational and living conditions to equip him for his new position. He will leave for Perth on

The distitute of Education is really a school for education and stateman-ship. The said. "Hi is the old London Day Training College founded in 1902, and it has been taken over by the University of London to give it freedom and scope for meeting new educational needs in the British Empire.

"Its particular aim is to provide a centre for the study of problems of educational policy and administration.

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN CHOSEN SOUTH AUSTRALIAN CROSEN
The It will assemble people whose
The It will assemble people whose
The Case to hape educational policy.
The Case is to hape educational policy.
The Case is to hape educational policy
that is the people of the company of the company to t

To fill these fellowships, the institute was not looking for young men fresh from college, but sought "mid-career" men who were likely to hold important positions, said Prof. Clarke.

The two Australian scholars have already been chosen, and one is a stready been chosen, and one is a stready been chosen, and one is a who are a stream of the control of t

St. Peters.

He was educated at St. Peter's College, and gained a Varsity blue for athleties. He is a member of the staff of the Teacher's Training College, and is assistant commissioner for training of boy scouts. Mr. Michel will leave for London in the Nestor from Outer Harbor on September 4.

GOVERNMENT AID SOUGHT

GOVERNMENT AID SOUGHT

"After three years it is hoped that the Governments will assist financially in maintaining these fellowships," and depends 100. The success of this plan depends 100. The success of the plan
depends 100. The success of the plan depends 100. The success of the success of the pend 100. The success of the success of the ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the
ten plan the success of the success of the ten plan the success of the success of the success of the ten plan the success of the success of the success of the ten plan the success of th medically unit.

"After these years it is allowed that the Governments will seath shancally in maintaining these fellowships," and and the control of the co

Aim of London Rules for R.A.A.F.COMMON POLICY

Enlistment Q AUB. 1935 BURSARY TO S.A. JOBS OPEN SOON

MELBOURNE, Friday.

INTENDING applicants for the 78
Royal Australian Art Force caedeships are given by the Air burst of the 78 the Candidates must have passed either the intermediate or junior public examinations conducted in the various States. Physics (or elementary science) and mathematics are compulsory sub-Jects.

They must be of pure European descent; British subjects and the sons of parents both of whom are British subjects. Where there is a doubt the burden of proof will rest with the appli-

Those who, from their written appli-cations, appear to be qualified, must be interviewed by a selection board in the capital city of the State in which they

AIR FITNESS TEST

They must then be medically examined by a service medical officer and undergo a preliminary test of their air fitness. Candidates presenting themselves for interview or medical exam-selves for Interview or medical examination are required to pay their own travelling expenses.

If the payment is the selection band, a character reference, an extract of birth method of the payment of fore submitting applications for cadetship.

Successful candidates will receive free passage from their home to the Royal Australian Air Force station, Point Cook, where they will undergo a course of training for about 12 months.

months.

Any cadets found unsuitable during the course of training are liable to discharge. The instruction may also be terminated in the case of those found medically unfit.

TRIP TO ENGLAND

From more than 60 applicants from From more than 60 applicants from all parts of the Commonwealth, the Senate of the University of Queensland yesterday appointed Mr. C. Pagehanify registrar of the University in succession to the late Mr. J. F. McCaffred states a message from Brisbane. Mr. Pagehanify is at present assistant manager of the State Advances CorON EDUCATION
Aims Of New London Institute

adv.10.9.32

FELLOWSHIP FOR S.A. TEACHER

Professor Clarke In Adelaide

Details of the building up in London of a centre for the study of problems asceniated with educational policy and administration were given yesterday by oversess students at the Institute of Education of the University of London, Professor Clarke who has been in Australia for about a fortnight, arrived to the Control of the Control of Australia for about a fortuleit, arrives in Adelaide by the express from Medical and Adelaide and Adela

Unity Through Education

"The layer of collection."

"This byte of the institute, and incident by the layer of the institute, and incident by the layer of British origin and, indeed, among the layer of British origin and, indeed, among the layer of th come."

Professor Clarke said that the fellow-ships were allotted by an advisory committee of University vice-chancelors, who looked not for young men, fresh "mid-career" men, whose work had indicated that they were likely to hold important positions. The recommendations of the committee were subject to the approval of the Institute of Educations.

The advicery committee has chosen for the Australian fellowables this year for the Australian fellowables this year and the second of the Australian Austr

At the end of the tures years beyonduring which the Institute will be interested by the Carnete Corocaton it is hoped that the value of the colors will have been proved to a feere which was been proved to a feere which was been sufficiently convinced on the various bounding Government will have been sufficiently convinced of the various believe to said framewing the sufficient of said framewing the sufficient of said framewing aided Professor Clark.

Homework Problem

The research of the control of the c

News 9.835 EXAMINATION ENGLISH

Sir-"An Adelaide Father" seems to have stirred up a great many critics of the present examination system in English literature Surely tions Board to substitute for its well-balanced syllabus covering a general and very necessary knowledge of English literature, a series of preparatory school spelling tests and hand-writing examinations.

And what a reflection it would be on Autralian culture if, as "An Adelaide Father asserts, the study of Shakespeare and Milton "might suit a few literary faddists living in the past!"

the past!"
"Business Man" wishes to know why bon and girls aged 14 to 16, "before they have learn to express themselves fluently in studies for the company of the student of the student to a graculting, long-drawn-out snayed of a Shakespearean play, and goes no buy sint to Shakespearean play, and goes no buy sint to Shakespearean play, and goes no buy sint to Shakespearean play and goes no buy to the first that a study of Shakespeare should be the means of teaching them to excress themselves the students of the students be the means of teaching them to express them selves better, and to the second that if they has so little literary appreciation at the age of 16 as to find a study of Shakespeare gruelling they yould not be likely to enjoy his works in later life in any case.

MOTHER OF TEN. North terrace

ado- 12.8.35

Sir William Mitchell, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Adelaide, gave a luncheon at the Hotel Richmond on Priday, when the following guests were present:—Professor F. Clarke (adrier to foreign students, the Institute of Education, London University), Professor Christian and Control of the Co Education, London University), Fride-sor Chapman, Dr. Fenner, Dr. Scholz, Inspector Allen, the Rev. A. G. Pentreath, and Messis, F. W. Earder, R. West, Lushery, and Mitchell.