News from SAVS

Welcome to all of our new students and welcome back to our existing students. We hope you are refreshed and ready to take on the year ahead.

If you haven't already, make sure you join the Roseworthy Campus Facebook group to connect with other students and keep in the loop about events and other cool things!

NEW STAFF MEMBER

You may know Rebecca Dunbar from her days in the Hub as the Student Services Officer but she has now joined the Williams Building crew as the new Senior Student Systems Officer. If you are in Animal Science, please speak to Rebecca about program advice and support. Emmica Schlobohm will continue to advise students in the Veterinary program.

Q-FEVER

Q-Fever is an infectious disease and the School has guidelines around Q-Fever vaccinations. It states that:

Bachelor of Science (Veterinary Bioscience) students must be vaccinated against Q-Fever (unless initial skin test indicates pre-existing immunity).

Bachelor of Science (Animal Science) students are strongly advised to vaccinate against Q-Fever (unless initial skin test indicates pre-existing immunity).

For all new Bachelor of Science (Veterinary Bioscience) students you must be vaccinated by the last day of the first teaching period of their veterinary studies.

Please visit the SAVS guidelines for vaccinations document.

Vaccination

Students must organise and pay for their own vaccinations. There are numerous Approved Q Fever Vaccination Providers available <https://www.qfever.org/>. The School has identified some local providers (Information Sheet - Q Fever Providers).

Showing Evidence

It is the student's responsibility to provide evidence that they have been vaccinated against Q-Fever. Students must upload a copy of their Q-Fever Card or other evidence to Sonia. Click here for instructions.

STUDENT REPS

We have a number of committees within the School that require student representatives. Thank you to all of our reps in 2017 – you did a fantastic job! Being a student rep is a great opportunity to see how programs are managed, develop your communication and leadership skills and gain valuable experience. We will be working with the relevant student groups to appoint students to these positions soon.

We look forward to seeing you all on campus throughout the year and wish you every success in your studies. Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any questions or queries.

Extra Mural Studies (EMS) / Work Experience

Placements

Placements, whether it be Extra Mural Studies (EMS) for Vet students or Work Experience for Animal Science students are important to learn about the industry, gain experience, develop networks and to reinforce theoretical application in a real life setting. For Vet students EMS is a compulsory component of their degree and for our Animal Science students it is optional.

Placements at the School of Animal and Veterinary Sciences are co-ordinated by the SAVS Placement Team.

Hi all!

Welcome back and off we go on another adventurous year!

We are open for breakfast, Lunch and Dinners until the end of the teaching year. Dinner is from 5:30pm to 7:30pm. If you are not a residential student and would like dinner just send us an email or come in and let us know and we will help you out.

Did you know all our sauces are Gluten Free? We also have GF ice cream and Lactose free milk. In fact let us know your dietary needs and we will be able to appease the hunger!

Join our email listings: 'What's for lunch' and "What's for dinner" and always know what the special of the day and dinner is going to be.

Pre-order your lunch and never miss out 831 37815 (Sandwiches, baguettes etc orders by 10:30am if possible)

For assistance from the café please contact Cath Frankel 831 37815 or email: roseworthy.cafe@adelaide.edu.au

Don't forget to do your bit for the campus environment and 'grab a plate mate'.
And remember to return it to the café!

This year the café continues the challenge of lowering the volume of waste produced, for the benefit of our environment and improved sustainability on campus.

ROYAL CANIN had a great year at Roseworthy in 2017. We flew two veterinarians to Adelaide from Melbourne across three events run with the amazing Companion Animal Special Interest Group and Adelaide Veterinary Student Association committees. These included a 'lunch and learn' on General Nutrition and our 'Dog Info Night' with CASIG, as well as an evening event on 'Atopic Dermatitis and Food Allergies' with AVSA.

We also attended AVSA's Industry Night in second semester. In 2017 ROYAL CANIN also launched our new food ordering platform 'Vet World', where veterinary students could order discounted ROYAL CANIN dog and cat food and treats.

2018 will see even more involvement at Roseworthy from ROYAL CANIN with many exciting events and competitions coming up, updates to our 'Vet World' ordering platform, and more!

Stay tuned by joining our Facebook group "Royal Canin at the University of Adelaide" and feel free to email adelaide.royalcanin@gmail.com with any questions! I'm excited for 2018 and can't wait to see your new and returning faces at our events this year

Your ROYAL CANIN Student
Ambassador, Anja Klingenberg..

AWAG – Adelaide Wildlife Appreciation Special Interest Group

The University of Adelaide's AWAG is a group for students passionate about wildlife and conservation. Throughout the year, we run interactive and educational talks and events focusing on both native and exotic wild animals.

Some highlights of a year with AWAG include wildlife necropsies, field-trips (including one to Adelaide's very own open-range zoo, Monarto), discounted zoo memberships, lunch and learns, wine and cheese nights, case studies from some of the best Wildlife professionals in Australia and excellent networking opportunities in the Wildlife industry

We will be available on Thursday the 8th of March from 4pm-6.30pm at Orientation night to showcase our fantastic group, help you with your membership sign ups and answer any questions you may have.

2018 committee:

President – George-Henry White
Vice-president – Taylor Hawkins
Treasurer – Sabine Yip
Secretary – Ruby Easter
Social media officer – Tiahni Adamson
General committee – Elke Beynon and Victor Law

Want to get involved with AWAG?

If you are interested, intrigued and inspired by exotic and native wildlife, come along and sign up at our stall on Orientation night or email us: awag@auclubs.com.au . Open to all University of Adelaide Roseworthy students!

Pig Club

The Adelaide Uni Pig Club is a special interest group based on the Roseworthy campus. Our goal is to provide our members with an education in pig handling, and in the pig industry. We hold regular sessions with industry and animal professionals to help members to go beyond their university education and to build networks for the future, such as lunch and learn sessions and dissection workshops. Through Pig Club you will also be given the opportunity to attend and volunteer at events outside of regular University opportunities like the Royal Adelaide Show. On top of our educational events you will also get heaps of chances to get to know the other members at our social events like a movie night and Pig Club dinner.

Possibly the best feature of Pig Club is our own shelter on campus where we house a handful of pigs every year to be handled and raised by our members! (And, even better, you can take selfies with them!)

A 'must join' club for any Roseworthy students hoping to gain animal handling or industry experience, or even if you just want to visit the pigs at the end of a stressful day!

To join Pig Club find us at Roseworthy O'Night or contact us at pigclub@clubs.auu.org.au.

Adelaide University Equine Special Interest Group

The Adelaide University Equine Special Interest Group had a fabulous year in 2017, with over 90 veterinary and animal science students signing up and attending an array of events throughout the year. These included 'lunch and learns' by veterinarians and industry representatives, castration clinics, Hoof Care Day by 'Wild about Hooves' from Tasmania, Rural Prac Day with PASIG, the National Carriage Driving Championships and assisting at the Adelaide International 3 Day Event, among many more. Our wonderful 2018 committee has a lot in store for this year so don't hesitate to sign up at any time throughout the year! For any questions or membership enquiries email equine@clubs.auu.org.au. ESIG looks forward to a great year with all the students at Roseworthy in 2018!

Your ESIG President, Anja Klingenberg.

Adelaide Graduate Award program

The opportunity to undertake the Adelaide Graduate Award program whilst studying DVM at the University of Adelaide has been an invaluable learning experience. Some of the extra-curricular activities that I participated in across the Adelaide Graduate Award categories were 'Global, Cultural and Social' & 'Creativity & Innovation'.

Looking For Something Off Campus? Want To Play Music?

In the words of Sir Duke, music is a language we all understand. Gawler Town Band would like to welcome students from the Roseworthy campus to join a community band that plays out regularly, with a wide repertoire and a relaxed but professional atmosphere. We have players of all ages and at every level of ability, and we have some brass and woodwind instruments available for loan if you've left yours at home.

Feel free to come along and say hello. We rehearse on Monday nights from 7.00pm at St George's Parish Hall (24 Orleana Square in Gawler, next to the Zion pre-school).
