

- CONTENTS -

1. Meteorites: Foote Mineral Company.
2. Meteorites in the Mineralogical Museum of Harvard University: by C. Palache.
- X 3. A catalogue and bibliography of Australian Meteorites: by C. Anderson.
4. The Elm Creek Aerolite: by K.S. Howard.
5. Preliminary note on the shower of meteoric stones at Aztec, near Holbrook, Navajo country, Arizona: by W.M. Foote.
- X 6. Description and analysis of the Binda Meteorite: by C. Anderson.
7. Merrillite and Chlorapatite from stony meteorites: by E.V. Shannon & E.S. Larsen.—
8. Contributions to Mineralogy from the Department of Mineralogy and Petrography, Harvard University: by C. Palache.
9. The Tulia Meteorite, Swisher County, Texas: by C. Palache & J.T. Lonsdale.
10. A stony meteorite from Forksville, Mecklenburg county, Virginia: by G.P. Merrill.
11. A New Kansas Meteorite: by H.H. Nininger.
12. A Unique iron meteorite from Mexico: by H.H. Nininger.
13. A Stony Meteorite from Colorado: by H.H. Nininger.
14. A New Pallasite Meteorite from Newport, Arkansas: by H.H. Nininger.
15. The Beardsley Meteorite: by H.H. Nininger.

- X 16. Identification of Diamond in the Canyon Diablo iron: by C.J. Ksanda & E.P. Henderson.
- X 17. The Meteorite Craters at Henbury, Central Australia: by A.R. Alderman.
18. The Pakenham Meteorite: by A.B. Edwards & C. Baker.
- X 19. Notes on Oxidation of Certain Meteorites, the Formation of Meteorodes: by H.H. Nininger.
20. Tektites from the Sherbrook River District, East of Port Campbell: by G. Baker.
21. An Unusual Australite Form: by G. Baker.
22. Descriptions of three unusual forms of Australites from Western Victoria: by Ernest W. Skeats.
23. Notes on the so-called Obsidian from Geelong and from Taradale and on Australites: by Ernest W. Skeats.
24. The Tasmanian Tektite - Darwin glass: by Sir T.W. Edgeworth David and Others.