Really Good Performances.

Each year sees new developments in the work of the Elder Conservatorium-more and more the hold of music seems to be come stronger among the people of South Australia-and whether as a cause or a consequence the scope of the Conservatorium is deepening and widening. Expression in many forms has taken the place of mere routine "lessons;" in singing and playing, music naturally involves a realization of meaning, emotion, character, and to attain this there could be no better method than that adopted in producing scenes from famous writings by great the more in that, although she came from Rev.
