

26th. June 1950.

My dear Ashby,

It is a great pleasure to learn of your appointment as Vice-Chancellor of Belfast, especially as too many Vice-Chancellors seem to be mere administrators, whose learning is confined to some subject like Law or Philosophy. Also, sentimentally I should like to see Belfast distinguishing itself.

Yours sincerely,