

20th May, 1953.

My dear Matteo,

Thank you for your letter which was very well written.
The English was so good that it might have been your father.

I hope you will like the fishes and insects as much as the birds.

Sincerely yours,