

21st. March 1949.

Dear Delling,

I do not expect I shall be in London soon. Why not try your problem on me, but in writing? I expect to leave Cambridge at the end of this month, and to be back again about mid-April.

Yours sincerely,