

14th September, 1951.

My dear Cyril,

Here is a funny one in addition to that from Falconer which I sent yesterday. I certainly recommend Falconer's for publication for I think he has done a useful little job. This one is odder but I would publish it if there is room as it is important to give something to the greatest variety of occasional readers.

Yours sincerely,