

20th. October 1950.

My dear Cyril,

I have just received the enclosed from I.M. Lerner, which I was very glad to see offered for publication in Heredity, as good work in quantitative inheritance, such as I think this to be, is at present all too rare. I hope you will put it in for publication as soon as is possible.

Yours sincerely,