

15th, November 1948.

My dear Darrois,

It is most kind of you to support the candidature of Wishart. I expect you will also have some others coming to you that I have set on foot, such as that of Croner in Sweden, and Irwin in this country. But I have usually asked the candidates to send the certificates to members of the Institute whose support they would particularly value.

Yours sincerely,