

19th. July 1948.

My dear Professor Darms,ois,

I am writing to thank you and your kind associates for sending me the card of greetings which I received here on my return from the Stockholm Genetical Congress. It was really most kind of you to think of me, and I want you to know that your idea has been appreciated.

Yours sincerely,