

12 September 1945

My dear Professor Darbois,

I am looking forward to taking advantage of your joint invitation with Fréchet for me to visit Paris for about a fortnight early next April or May. I believe Fréchet would like the actual date to be settled later. I have had a long and interesting letter from Dugué on his second demobilisation, and am very glad to hear that all is well with him; even if he cannot visit Paris, perhaps I should be able to look for him at Bordeaux.

It will be an immense pleasure to see you all again, as I hope will be possible in the Spring.

Yours sincerely,
