

25th April, 1951.

Dear Mr Nawaz,

I have just seen your letter and I think I can say at once that I should have no hesitation whatever in applying the analysis of variance to the values of coefficients of variations. I do not believe that there is a single case in the history of technology or such analysis being misleading merely because of non-normality of the distributions.

Yours sincerely,