

5 July 1944

Dear Professor Punnett,

I wonder if you could put me in the way of getting hold of any portrait of yourself, framed or unframed, of a kind suitable to the entrance hall of Whittinghame Lodge where the Genetics Department is now duly housed.

There is no hurry, but I should like you to have such a possibility in mind, at least if you approve of it.

Yours sincerely,