

February 3, 1942

Dear Dr O'Brien,

Thank you for your note of January 31st, and I should like to thank you also for the very helpful attitude you have throughout taken towards my Department. I will send you a note on the current position about next October, if that is a convenient time.

Yours sincerely,