

January 15, 1940

My dear O'Brien,

I am very glad to hear that you and Dr Gregg expect to make a visit to London early next February. I could come up to London to meet you, or you might care to run down to Harpenden in the morning, lunch with me at my home, and return in the afternoon. In any case I think we may have a good deal of interest to discuss.

Yours sincerely,