

21st December, 1942

Dear Dr O'Brien,

I am wondering whether the copy of my letter of the 16th October, which I understand was forwarded to you, to the U.S., reached you safely, as I have had no word from you. As you may guess, I had been confident of your support, at least for a further year, so please let me know if there is any difficulty.

Yours sincerely,
