

November 17, 1942

Dear Topley,

May I congratulate you most heartily on your receiving this year the honour of a Royal Medal, which I have certainly thought your work abundantly deserves.

May I thank you at the same time for the quick reply I have received about the electric heater.

Yours sincerely,