British farmers generally took kindly a scientific agriculture, said Dr. Davies, nd in many cases made experiments remmended by the agricultural schools, till they were a conservative class-metimes justifiably so, when science filled itself to commerce—and there were any among them who liked things done stell refers and granultatives before at their fathers and granultatives before the properties of the science of the scie ith the co-operation of the farmers Dr. ies thinks that scientific agricultural arch can do much toward bettering lot of the British farmer. Take ble was that the farmer was in urgent I of help immediately, while the pross of research work was necessarily vanish and the United States takes which was all the United States takes a from States take had been as a state and a great impression upon-referred, the They were the unbounded belief of expand their a Canadians and of the people of the first springlitude of States in cleantain, and expectably to 120,000, on the schools to teach the scientific principal of the which was the states of the scientific principal of the schools to teach the scientific principal of the scientific principal of the schools to teach the scientific principal of the schools to teach the scientific principal of the schools to teach the scientific principal of the sc which concerned the work of they a iarmer, and the large sums of a spent by the various States and, case of vocational education, by educal Government to secure the n education; and to teach their men how to make farming a profit-

The Food Supply.

ADV. 21-1-28

AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION.

we how to make farming a protisiness. Agriculture was taught, in the paddress on agricultural educes bommirch, industrial, agricultural in the United States, and, in adds is that Chited States, and, in adds is attach and a fleat one agracial total property of the protection of th rai clueating was researches on this important subject in master of an efficient school as havin monoscull in two researches on this important subject in master of an efficient school as havin composed in two researches and the course Great Britain, Canada, the United States, satisfactorily completed a full four-year of the same status and other countries. The Director of course. One of several advantages was incided points at the ration as a subject to the same status and other countries. t. Relas abroad with much up-to-date know-external spending ledge regarding the progress made by In an advanced countries in various branches the present courses in agric of education, and with a stock of newis an essential that the white nexidess which, when the present them in amoney is at the rate of one million systematic form to the Government in have great at the rate of one million systematic form to the Government in have great at the rate of one million systematic form to the Government in have great and the food supply was conditionally useful as a guide to future the United

B 21-1-28

in the concretion of the selection agricultural arch can do much toward bettering a to of the large and the selection and the position in a secondary of the plant and the position of the plant and the plant and the plant and the position of the plant and t

AGRICULTURAL EDUCA-

Its Study a "Soft Option."

Mr. McCoy and Examinations.

